

Brewton-Parker College invites applications for the position of College President.
The President serves as the Chief Administrative Officer and reports to a 30-member Board of Trustees appointed by the Georgia Baptist Convention.

Brewton-Parker College Profile

Brewton-Parker College is a four-year Christian college located on the main campus in Mount Vernon, Georgia, and one external site in Newnan, Georgia. Affiliated with the Georgia Baptist Convention, the College offers four baccalaureate degrees in a caring, Christian environment that nurtures the whole student.

Students enjoy challenging academic programs in an unapologetically Christian setting. Residential students participate in a comprehensive campus life program involving student organizations, intramural sports, campus ministry opportunities, and weekend activities.

Mission Statement

The mission of Brewton-Parker College, a Georgia Baptist college, is to develop the whole student through the application of Biblically-centered truth to a liberal arts curriculum in a community of shared Christian values.

Vision Statement

Brewton-Parker College strives to honor Jesus Christ in every area of the academy.

Faith and Learning Statement

Brewton-Parker College is founded on faith in Jesus Christ, the son of God, and the affirmation that since all truth comes from God, the academic search for truth is compatible with faith in God. Therefore, the faculty at Brewton-Parker College has a proud heritage of valuing the importance of faith and learning. Throughout the history of the college, faculty members have attempted to provide a liberal arts education grounded in the understanding of the Christian tradition.

In this faith and learning statement, we reiterate our commitments to the following historic principles of church related education. The principle of soul competency, the worth of the individual, and the freedom of individual conscience are respected as foundational to the student's role in the learning process. The principle of the priesthood of the believer affirms the equality of all students in the learning process.

Dedicated to academic freedom, Brewton-Parker's faculty members continue to be committed to using their God-given talents to seek truth in all lines of scholarship. In doing so, they aspire, as they feel led, to encourage their colleagues and students to integrate their personal faith into their teaching, learning, and interactions. They also strive to promote a sincere spirit of Christ-like tolerance; to provide an open and nurturing environment to explore all intellectual avenues; and to strive to act toward others, both inside and outside the classroom, in a manner that honors the example set by Christ.

Profile

Functioning as Executive Officer for Brewton Parker College, the President is responsible for all educational and administrative functions, within the authority delegated by the governing Board of Trustees. The President must ensure that all policies and procedures lead to practices that maximize student success and are fiscally appropriate.

Required Qualifications

An earned doctorate (Ed.D., Ph.D. or other terminal degree) from a regionally accredited college or university, with an emphasis in higher education, educational administration, or other appropriate discipline

Appropriate high-level administrative, supervisory, and management experience in post-secondary education, experience in a Christian college or university preferred (minimum of 5 years)

Recognized leader in the Christian faith, an active member of a Southern Baptist Church, and a subscriber to the Baptist Faith and Message

Meet and maintain any other Brewton-Parker College certification requirements

For complete job description and other information go to: www.bpc.edu (Homepage has a link to Presidential Search Information)

Application Procedure

Deadline for applicants to submit documents – March 15, 2015. An individual wishing to be considered for the position should submit application materials to 17thpresident@bpc.edu or mail materials to:

Mrs. Lynda Yawn, Chair
Brewton Parker College Presidential Search Committee
19534 Hwy 80 West
Statesboro, Georgia 30458

The following application materials are required and are the only items that will be considered for Step One of the search process:

1. Letter of Interest
2. Resume including References
3. Personal Statement of Faith